

Colonel Eric Belcher

Colonel Eric Belcher is currently serving as the G-3, United States Army Criminal Investigation Command (CID), Fort Belvoir, Virginia. In this position he is responsible for the operations, plans, policy and training for CID whose worldwide mission includes felony level investigations for the Army as well as protective services for senior Department of Defense and Army officials.

He has had a wide variety of assignments throughout his career. He returned in 2006 from a tour in Afghanistan where he was working Afghan National Police Reform as well as assisting the Afghanistan government stand up its own detainee operations capability. Prior to that assignment he attended the Canadian Forces College for War College.

His prior assignments include the Military Police Branch Chief, US Army Human Resources Command; Battalion Commander, Fort Campbell CID BN; Operations Officer and Executive Assistant in the Joint Staff J-38; US Army Staff (DCSOPS); S-3 709th Military Police Battalion (Germany); US Army Concepts Analysis Agency; Commander, 209th Military Police Company, 519th Military Police Battalion; Commander Fort Meade Installation Detention Facility; Commander, Fort Richardson Installation Detention Facility; and Platoon Leader, 56th Military Police Company, Fort Richardson, Alaska.

His military and civilian schooling include: Canadian Forces College (war college), FBI National Academy, US Army Command and General Staff College, Combined Arms and Services Staff School, US Army Military Police Advanced Course, US Army Military Police Basic Course, and United States Military Academy at West Point.

His deployments include: Operation Enduring Freedom, Afghanistan; IFOR, Bosnia; Hurricane Andrew relief; Operation Guantanamo (Haitian Migrants at GTMO); and Desert Shield and Desert Storm